Co-operation

The subjects of wage increase, H. C. of L., shortage of production are not one-sided questions.

Nor is the solution and correction of the evils that may exist in these problems a one-man job.

American Industry, with the problems arising from it, form a Community interest—involving the Employer, the Employe and the public. Industry is a threecornered partnership responsibility. It is part yours.

Neither Employer nor Employe, Managment nor Production—nor Capital and Labor as represented by these—neither one, acting arbitrarily and independently, can move these mountains. But by working together they can do it.

In the process of Reconstruction big changes in Industry will occur.

United Effort is needed as much today in the work of Industrial Reconstruction as it was in winning the war. Fairmindedness and co-operation are the big things needed NOW. Settle down, get the kind of a job or business you are fitted for. We must stick and save. That is what makes success in the long

The men who are doing these things today are bigger patriots and are doing more to help America than all of the Radical Reformers rolled in a bunch.
